

DMA House is your working home in the heart of central London

Where we are

DMA House is two minutes' walk from Oxford Circus station, nestled in Fitzrovia, at 70 Margaret Street W1W 8SS.

Our neighbours are a rich mix of creative agencies, tech start-ups and established businesses, and the local area offers the best of London: wonderful restaurants, delis and pubs - and we're just a hop and a skip from Soho.

A new-look DMA House

Newly refurbished, DMA House offers a connected working experience with wifi throughout, rooms equipped with screens and projectors, and in-house A/V support to ensure everything runs smoothly.

DMA House mixes relaxed, open environments with bookable, private rooms across four floors, with kitchen facilities available on each.

Find the right space you need to inspire your team, meet clients or just call in and kick-off your working day.

Shared workspaces

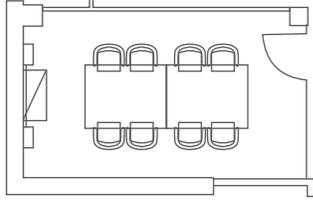

On the ground and lower floors of DMA House our members and guests enjoy light, colourful surroundings in which to work, collaborate and create.

Meet your clients here, interview new talent or get your team together for a session away from your office.

There are kitchen facilities on both floors, wifi throughout and A/V available on screens.

The studio

An intimate room that seats 8 – 10, the studio is ideal for presentations, small team meetings, client catch-ups and training sessions.

You'll have the use of projector facilities, screen, flipcharts and wifi throughout.

Situated on the ground floor, the studio offers you access to kitchen facilities for tea, coffee and other refreshments.
