The DMA Awards are the only awards in UK marketing to reward campaigns that make a difference: they are the proving ground for work that works.

For 40 years, the DMAs have attracted entries from brave brands, the inspiring agencies they partner with and the multitude of tech and innovation suppliers who all combine to help bring vivid dreams to technicolour life.

And every year it is a commitment to rigour and a stonewall belief in our three pillars that sets the DMA Awards apart as the most rewardingly hard to win in the business.

Strategy

Lightbulb exploding moments of eureka creativity and bolder-than-bold innovation.

This all needs to be pulled together and brought to life seamlessly and effectively: strategically.

This key pillar of the DMA Awards is where we measure work against what it set out to do, the route it planned and mechanics it used to get there. Because ideas, no matter how brilliant, will always need the warm blanket of a sure-fire plan to succeed.

Creativity

Creativity has been said to be evidence of intelligence having fun.

Today we are surrounded by a vibrant sense of the playful as we move about in our digital and “real” worlds, awash with colour.

That’s why creativity is key to the DMA Awards; we seek to celebrate those firecracker moments when ideas ignite to bring the world around us to life.

Where concepts surge on the page, screen, billboard or package to take up residence in our minds and imaginations.

Results

The DMA Awards champion the role results play in crystallising brilliant creativity and rock-solid strategy.

Results are the evidence that the overall campaign mix was potent enough to make an impact and ripple out across the world.

Our judges will interrogate results because they matter. They are what people remember. They are the ultimate proof that work, works

/ Who can enter?

The DMAs welcome entries from agencies, clients, tech suppliers, innovation companies and start-ups.

We see sparkling work from global agency operators to small studios, from SMEs to mega brands.

Campaigns forged in the furnace of creative scenes around the country, from Dorset to Dundee we want work from all corners of these fine isles.

We just want the best.

Your best: whoever you are, wherever you are, and no matter how big (or small) you may be.

/ What to enter?

When should the campaign have run?

For most categories, eligibility dates for campaigns to have run are between 1 August 2020 and 31 July 2021.

Work must have been live at some point within these dates. It can be finished or ongoing.

Please review our category descriptions further along in this pack– or click here – as certain categories will consider work beyond these standard eligibility dates.

Can I enter more than once?

Yes.

You can enter one campaign into multiple categories, and multiple campaigns into the same category.

Can international work be entered?

International work can be entered if produced by a UK business.

Can I include sensitive results?

Yes.

Put any confidential information that you don't want published in the secure and confidential section marked "For Judges' Eyes Only". All judges sign non-disclosure agreements, ensuring they do not discuss judging out of the room.

Does every entry need client sign-off?

Yes.

An entry is incomplete without client sign-off. Step five of the application process prompts you to enter your client's email address. They will be sent a copy of the entry to sign off. You will receive an automated response prompting payment when this is done.

For more detailed information on what to include in your submissions, head to section 5 in the pack or click here.

/ Deadlines and fees

04

A helping hand goes a long way.

Especially when it comes to navigating the choppy waters of Awards submissions.

So we've put together a handy guide that tells you the key information to submitting your campaign to the DMA Awards.

Getting started

All DMA Awards entries are made online, so head to dmaawards.org.uk for starters. If you're not already logged in at this point, you will need to register to create an account for your entries.

Hit the 'Enter Now' button to begin your DMA Awards entry.

You can save and amend your entry so you can keep coming back to it until client sign off has been submitted - so log on and explore the form. Navigate your ongoing entries that are saved in the system by clicking 'My Entries' on the top right-hand side of the website.

The entry process to the DMA Awards breaks out into five stages. We've summarised them and the activity they require here:

1. Campaign Overview

Choose the categories you'd like to enter. You can enter as many as you wish.

2. The Team

Tell us the individuals and companies to credit for the work.

3. Campaign Summary

This will be what judges use to aid their debate and fight for your campaign.

Be concise.

Get to the key elements quickly, but don't hold back on essential information.

4. Campaign in Detail

Expand on your work.

Sensitive information should be put in the for "judges' eyes only" box.

Upload any supporting material to support your entry.

5. Client Submission

Do a pre-flight check to see your entry laid out in the way the judges will look at it. Once you're happy with it and your supporting material is displaying correctly, you'll need client sign-off.

Add your client's email address. They'll be able to sign-off online.

Payment

You can pay via card on the website or BACS once your entry or entries have received client sign-off. Invoices will be generated automatically that you can access at 'My Entries'.

Payments must be received by Friday 24 September 2021.

You can download our full checklist to get you started here

/ Submission and supporting material guidelines

05

Submission guidelines

- Remove all references to the agency in your entry
- Put any confidential information that you don't want published in the secure and confidential section marked "For Judges' Eyes Only". All judges sign non-disclosure agreements, ensuring they do not discuss judging out of the room
- We will need to see examples of the work with your entry, in the form of supporting material - where possible use live examples

Supporting material guidelines

- Supporting material should be supplied in a digital format by uploading files during step four of the online entry process
- Due to judging remaining a virtual event for 2021, no hardcopy material can be submitted

Please use the following guidelines

Files and Images

Images should be supplied in either jpeg, .jpg, .png, .gif or .pdf. You can upload a maximum of 7 files and images.

Judges expect to see examples of emails, websites and other creative collateral used throughout the campaign.

Include any visuals, such as user experience maps or indexing/graphs, to demonstrate results.

Hero image

Please provide two hero images for the DMA Awards shortlist, DMA Awards night creative content and promotion; and in the DMA Awards Annual should you be shortlisted.

Images should be supplied in either jpeg, .jpg, .png

- A4 Portrait:- 3508 x 2480 pixels, 300 ppi (pixels per inch)
- A4 Landscape:- 2480 x 3508 pixels 300 ppi (pixels per inch)

Websites and landing pages

Please place all links to a live URLs in the 'URL' box provided in section four of the entry process.

Make sure any URLs are still live when judging commences.

Video

Your video should be supplied in .mov, .mp4, .mv4 or .avi file formats only and should be no longer than two minutes.

Maximum file size of 100MB.

/ The judging process: What our judges look for

06

Behind every DMA Award winner there are judges that believed in it.

So what do our arbiters of marketing magic look for in a DMA Awards entry?

At the heart of every entry should be a story. A story that effectively communicates to the judges the background, development, execution and results of the campaign.

That story should be told with a passion that proves the entry is worthy of recognition as a DMA winner.

The judges must assimilate a lot of information from different sources in a relatively short space of time. They will read the entry form and then review examples of creative work digitally.

It's important your entry has a clear narrative thread that holds it all together, and keeps the judges engaged.

Our judges will measure work against our three pillars. Here's how to make your entry catch their eyes and keep attention.

Strategy

The strategy section is your chance to explain convincingly why you did what you did.

What have you learned about the target audience that informed the strategy, creativity or targeting?

What were the insights that inspired your approach?

Strategy will be at the core of your entry story, so ensure it is clear and straightforward and that it links to all the other parts of your submission.

Judges will look for strategies that move a business in a new direction, and strategies that harness data and insight effectively to create results not previously achieved.

Creativity

This is your big pitch.

Ensure your creativity is presented to the judges in the best way possible. Make it easy for them to see how the creative worked, and to understand the creative journey that consumers went on.

For complex campaigns some entrants choose to supply examples of the creative work in annotated presentations or in short films. In both cases the supporting material must not be overtly selling, it should simply keep to the facts, giving an overview of the campaign.

There are also strict guidelines on the permissible length of supporting films.

Remember, judges want to experience the work just as consumers did.

Results

When presenting results, show actual results rather indices.

All judges are bound by a strict confidentiality agreement and are not allowed to take notes during the judging process. So rest assured, if you indicate that your results are confidential, they will stay that way.

Again, individual categories will look for specific results and KPIs, but as a rule always include cost-effectiveness measures, showing total campaign cost (and what that includes), total sales, cost per sale.

Research information and anecdotal comments are no substitute for financially robust metrics.

Your winning entry should have judges saying:

Do you know me?

Have you made me feel something?

Have you asked me to do something?

Can you prove that you've done it?

Nicky Bullard,

CCO & Chairwoman, MRM and Former Chair of DMA Awards Committee

/ The

judging process:

How the DMAs

are judged

Our judges will gather to tackle hundreds of entries across our category selection. If you have not already, you can apply to judge here.

Category Judging

This year each session will take place digitally. Each category is judged by up to 12 handpicked judges, led by a Category Chair.

DMA Awards judges review:

- Campaign summaries
- Campaigns in detail
- Supporting materials (ie. imagery and video)

In the first round of judging, each category judge reviews each entry and scores out of 10, against the three pillars of the DMAs: strategy, creativity and results.

Judges who feel they have a vested interest in an entry are asked to disclose this and won't be able to score this work.

Once scoring is complete, Category Chairs notify the DMA team in order that a longlist of nominated entries can be compiled.

Judges must now sit for round two of the judging process. Each piece of work is debated and discussed.

This process will result in the private declaration of a shortlist that features nominated work placed as follows:

- Gold
- Silver
- Bronze
- Fourth
- Fifth

The DMA Awards shortlist will be complete at this stage. No judges know how each other scored and are dismissed.

Grand Prix Judging

Choosing a DMA Grand Prix shortlist takes place on the final day of Awards judging.

Our Category Chairs gather to build a Grand Prix shortlist of three by reviewing all Gold winners and judging them against the Awards pillars. The Category Chairs leave not knowing who made the shortlist.

The Grand Prix shortlist will be announced at the Awards Night and invited to pitch their entry to the Category Chairs at the Grand Prix Reveal on Thursday 20 January.

Following the shortlist's pitches and questioning from the Category Chairs, they will debate and vote on a DMA Awards Grand Prix winner. This will then be announced live at Grand Prix Reveal.

/ What happens next

08

You've done what needs to be done. You've got the work, you've entered the DMAs. And our judges have had their say. What next?

What happens after judging?

Judging week culminates in the creation of our DMA Awards shortlist.

Each judging panel generates a list of contenders for the respective category they assess.

For the shortlist, a maximum of five campaigns will be in the running to win a podium spot on the Awards Night.

Shortlist Announcement

The shortlist will be announced on Thursday 14 October. We hope to run our annual DMA Awards shortlist party, however, due to the uncertainty of the upcoming months this may be announced online.

DMA Awards night

The next date in your diary is the Awards night itself.

Be there, in person, to see where your brilliant work will take you. Podium finish? Category win? Or the Grand Prix shortlist?

Awards night takes place on Tuesday 7 December, at Old Billingsgate. Be there along with over 800 of the UK marketing and creative industry's best for a night under the stars next to the River Thames.

Always hugely popular – an ideal event to salute a year's hard work, to celebrate with your team or to entertain your clients – we encourage early booking.

To register your interest please email awardsnight@dma.org.uk

DMA Awards: Grand Prix Reveal

On Thursday 20 January 2022 we will gather to listen to the Grand Prix Shortlist present their gold winning case studies, and pitch to win the Grand Prix Award for 2021. Each shortlisted entrant will be interrogated by the Category Chairs and finally debated to see who wins the top spot.

To register your interest please email awardsnight@dma.org.uk

DMA Awards Annual

Should your work win the hearts and minds of our judges and make the DMA Awards podium, you'll form a crucial part of our Awards Annual.

This is the place where work that works is seen, a testament to your efforts and skills, as we provide snappy case studies and colourful representations of the depth and breadth of great campaigns that the DMA Awards, rewards.

The Annual lands on the desks of leaders throughout the marketing and creative worlds; is picked up and bought by agency winners, brand champions and proud team members; and holds pride of place on the mantelpieces of grandparents all around the UK (and beyond). You can order your copy here.

Case study portal

Should you win at the 2021 DMA Awards, your winning case study will be added to the case study portal. Currently, all Bronze, Silver and Gold Winners from 2011 to 2020 case study information from the DMA Awards archive is housed on the DMA Awards website.

This invaluable resource showcases the best work in the industry and to see best practice in action.

This includes information around the strategy, creativity and results of the campaign, as well as the teams involved.

Speaker slots

The DMA invite winners to present their work first-hand at a range of case study events and webinars.

These events delve into the work of winners, discussing the three main awards pillars of strategy, creativity and results in terms of their award-winning campaign.

A quickfire guide to entering the DMAs

There are some key pointers you should consider to help you shape your entry.

Keep these in mind as you work up your Awards entry.

1. Pick out your best work

No doubt you've worked on lots of great stuff in the past year or so.

It can be tough to pick a favourite child, but this is the DMAs; your work has got to showcase great strategy, show-off traffic-stopping creativity, all backed up by seismic results.

Those are our key pillars – have you got the campaigns to match?

To do: Select your best for the DMA Awards test

2. If you are entering work on behalf of your clients, then you'll need sign-off from them before we can consider the work.

To do: Get clearance to go

3. Check out our tracks and categories

With step one out of the way, dig into what the DMA Awards offer you in terms of categories.

Match your work up against the categories that best suit your work. There are 35 categories this year, split out into five tracks. Read about them in depth earlier on in the entry pack and remember, you can enter as many as you'd like.

To do: Dig into our categories

4. Get friendly with our guidelines

We've got info and guidance to help you organise your supporting materials and bring shape and order to your Awards entry.

Now would be a good time to get to know this stuff so you can understand exactly what we're looking for.

To do: Read up on supporting materials in the next section

5. Write up your entry offline

One thing that will help you build a better Awards entry is to mock one up. Use our sample entry form to help you do this.

Print it out and capture all the content you need to take your entry from offline to online.

To do: Head to our sample entry form to get your practice in

6. Use your team to help you build a winning entry

Your brilliant work came about because, well, teamwork makes the dream work.

So get your writers and your designers, your account people and your planning brains, all together and get their thoughts on the nuts and bolts of your campaign so you can tell your story in the richest way possible.

To do: Get the band back together – bring biscuits

7. Head online

Head online to start your journey.

Time to bring it all to life.

To start your entry just head online to dma.org.uk/awards and kick things off. And remember: once you've started the digital version of your entry, you can save and come back to it at any time.

So plenty of opportunity to get things just right

To do: Head to the home of the DMA Awards – and enter
